~ The Indie Fest Announces Latest Winners ~

(La Jolla, CA, 09/12/09) - The Indie Fest is proud to announce the latest winners.

The awards go to those filmmakers who produce fresh, standout entertainment and compelling documentaries. The Indie Fest is an international awards competition, and is developing a reputation as a top tier competition. It honors professionals, established and emerging, who demonstrate exceptional achievement in craft and creativity. Annually, a special award is given to a production that makes a significant contribution to social change or a humanitarian effort. Go to www.theindiefest.com for more information.

Thomas Baker, Ph.D., who chairs the competition, had this to say about the latest winners, "The Indie Fest is not an easy award to win. The judges were pleased with the exceptionally high quality of the entries. The goal of The Indie Fest is to help the winners of this coveted award achieve the recognition and distribution they deserve."

Best of Show

Chickasaw Nation, Pearl, feature film, is the true and touching story of a Chickasaw teen who pursues her dream of flying against the backdrop of the deepening American Depression and catastrophic Dust Bowl. Beautiful cinematography, well-told story and high quality post-production. Actress Elijah de Jesus delivers a brilliant performance. www.pearlthemovie.net

Craving Dreams Entertainment (India), Boond, short film, is a study of human nature that revolves around the timeless story of the corruption of power. Set in a remote village in India, villagers are at the mercy of a widow who in her desire to avenge injustice becomes the oppressor. Tightly-edited, Boond is a gripping and tragic story. www.youtube.com/watch?v=yCz58kviEdM
