"THE MATTRESS HUSTLE" SCREENS AT THE 2009 REEL FESTIVAL for WOMEN

(New York, NY) "The Mattress Hustle," a short film Directed by Susan Watson Turner, will be screened at the 2009 Reel Women Festival in Los Angeles, Saturday, March 28 at 8p.m.

"The Mattress Hustle" follows a young couple's antics as they transition from entry-level jobs to the careers of their dreams. Unable to keep up with sky-rocketing rental costs in NYC they retreat to their parent's house plagued with young siblings and no privacy. Eros ultimately inspires their solution to 'being together,' but not without enduring a series of quirky situations. However, all is well that ends well and they land in new careers paths --- still madly in love.

Reel Women International Film Festival founded by Diana Means was established to honor and advance the careers of accomplished and emerging women filmmakers by providing them a forum to showcase their films in the heart of the entertainment industry. Described by Back Stage West as a "Must-attend event for all women in the entertainment industry."

"The Mattress Hustle" will be screened at the Laemmle Music Hall located in Beverly Hills on Wilshire Blvd at the corner of Doheny on Saturday March 28 at 8p.m.
